DANIEL AND THE LIONS DEN

A long time ago there was a man called Daniel he was a very intelligent man. Daniel was the king`s best servant. Daniel prayed three times a day. The king always asked Daniel questions that will help king Darius to rule the kingdom.

 King Darius kept offering Daniel parts of the kingdom. One day the Governors became jealous of Daniel they wanted to get rid of Daniel and the next day they came up with a plan to get rid of Daniel so they told the king their plan. The plan was that everyone has to pray only to king Darius for thirty days and if they did not obey the rule they would be thrown into the lion's den. King Darius thought that it was a good idea but he wanted to ask Daniel if it was a good idea but Governors lied to king Darius and that Daniel said it was a great idea and Daniel didn`t know about the new rule. But when Daniel heard about the new rule, he did not obey the rule. One day the Governors found Daniel praying to God then the Governors told king Darius that Daniel was praying to God instead of praying to him king Darius. The king was very sad because Daniel was his best servant, and Daniel will have to die for praying to God. Then the king ordered his guards to throw Daniel into the lion's Den, for disobeying the king's rule.

So Daniel was thrown into the lion's Den, at night king Darius couldn`t sleep because he was sad that Daniel was going to die. But when it was morning king Darius woke up and rushed to the lion's den and asked Daniel if he was still alive maybe king Darius did not expect an answer but Daniel answered the king that he was alive. Then king Darius ordered the soldiers to opened the lion's den and helped Daniel to get out, the soldiers brought out Daniel from the lion's Den and the told the guards to throw the governor into the lion's Den, the guards threw the Governor into the lion's Den. The lions eat the Governor, and the Governor died. Then king Darius made a new rule that everyone has to pray to Daniel God.
